Creators of Peace – a women’s initiative

Creators of Peace is a multicultural women’s network currently active in over 40 countries. It encourages women to work for social transformation based on personal transformation. As a program of Initiatives of Change it is engaged in building trust across the world’s divides.

A Creators of Peace Circle is a three day facilitated interaction amongst a small group of women exploring together the nature of peace and what is required of each one to contribute to peace creating in home, community and nation.

To participate in the Creators of Peace Circle and Facilitator Training is FREE OF CHARGE.

However costs for accommodation at the former Caux-Palace Conference Centre including meals is CHF 165/night, or meals only it is CHF 55/day.

If you wish to take part please register at <http://www.caux.ch/register>, check the box “Other reasons for coming” and indicate “Peace Circle” and/or “Facilitator Training” (please indicate English or French).
